

PUCN SB 123 (NVision) Timeline

- March 20, 2013 – Don Lomoljo (PUCN) contacted by Shawn Elicegui (NVE) via e-mail regarding “legislative matters”; meeting scheduled for the afternoon on March 21, 2013
- Afternoon of March 21, 2013 – Telephone meeting with NVE
 - Attending: Shawn Elicegui and Mike Carano (NVE); Anne-Marie Cuneo, Garrett Weir , Don Lomoljo (PUCN)
 - NVE walked through proposal, questions posed to NVE; PUCN requested info. regarding remaining book value, decommissioning, clean-up of RG units, pertinent dates/info. regarding Navajo units
- Don Lomoljo (PUCN) reached out several times to NVE between March 21 and March 26 to get permission to discuss NVision Conceptual language on March 27 Agenda – NVE Denied permission
- March 26 – Commissioner Rebecca Wagner meets with Governor’s Office re: NVision
- March 29 – Meeting with Senator Atkinson, Assemblyman Bobzien, NVE representatives, and other interested persons
 - Attending for PUCN: Anne-Marie Cuneo and Garrett Weir
 - PUCN did not engage in negotiations
- April 2 – Meeting at Governor’s Office RE; NVision (NVE present)
 - Attending: Commissioner Rebecca Wagner, Anne-Marie Cuneo (PUCN); NVE representatives
- April 3 – Senate Commerce, Labor, and Energy Meeting; NVision Amendment introduced (Amendment didn’t show up on NELIS until shortly before Committee Meeting)
 - PUCN (Anne-Marie Cuneo, Garrett Weir, and Don Lomoljo) testifies in the neutral position, answered questions, stated that PUCN had not had a public meeting of the Commissioners to discuss the bill, PUCN staff still analyzing the amendment
- April 4 – Anne-Marie Cuneo and Don Lomoljo receive partial information from NVE re: RG and Navajo units; no information on decommissioning/salvage values
- April 5 – Anne-Marie Cuneo and Don Lomoljo receive information received from NVE on Salvage/Decommissioning

PUCN SB 123 Timeline

- Meeting on April 5 – At Governor’s Office
 - Attending: Governor’s Office Staff, Anne-Marie Cuneo, Don Lomoljo, NVE
 - Anne-Marie Cuneo handed NVE a written request for further info. on back-up financial info, assumptions, etc.
- Meeting on April 9 – At Governor’s Office
 - Attending: Governor’s Office Staff, Anne-Marie Cuneo, Tammy Cordova, NVE
- Meeting on April 11 (A.M.) – At Governor’s Office
 - Attending: Governor’s Office Staff, Gaming Representatives, Anne-Marie Cuneo, Don Lomoljo, then NVE invited to attend by Governor’s Office – NVE arrived later
- Meeting on April 11 (P.M.) – At Governor’s Office
 - Attending: Governor’s Office Staff, Utility-Scale Renewable Developers, NVE, Anne-Marie Cuneo, Don Lomoljo
- April 11 (7:08 p.m.) Shawn Elicegui (NVE) sends via e-mail a new version of SB 123 amendment
- Meeting on April 12 (A.M.) – At Governor’s Office
 - Attending: Governor’s Office Staff, Newmont Mining, Utility-Scale Renewable Developers, Gaming Representatives, Anne-Marie Cuneo, Don Lomoljo, NVE, Dan Jacobsen invited halfway in
 - New NVE NVision Amendment discussed
 - This was the last meeting at the Governor’s Office attended by PUCN personnel; No further invitations to meetings at the Governor’s Office have been received by PUCN personnel
 - PUCN personnel attendance at Governor’s Office meetings was to aid PUCN understanding of the proposal, to ask questions, and to provide technical support to anyone who asked; PUCN personnel were not authorized to negotiate, nor did they engage in negotiation
- April 12 - NVE requests a Protective Agreement in order to provide the further back-up info. requested on April 5
- April 12 (P.M.) Senate Commerce, Labor & Energy Work Session
 - New Amendment presented by NVE (didn’t appear on NELIS until just before meeting)

PUCN SB 123 Timeline

- Pete Ernaut (NVE) when testifying implied that PUCN provided input, was supportive
- PUCN (Anne-Marie Cuneo and Don Lomoljo) invited to the table to answer questions – Don Lomoljo clarified PUCN role in meetings (listened, asked questions, provided technical support), Commission Stance (neutral)
- April 15 (6:16 pm) – Responses to April 5 DRs received from NVE; provided confidentially pursuant to P.A.
- April 19 – PUCN discusses April 12 version of SB 123 at length during its Agenda Meeting (Audio available on PUCN web-site)
- May 9 – Don Lomoljo sends an e-mail to Shawn Elicegui (NVE) requesting updated financial information regarding SB 123 that was apparently being distributed
- May 9 – Shawn Elicegui (NVE) provides via e-mail the updated financial information, a new conceptual SB 123 amendment, and other supporting summary documents
- May 11 – Shawn Elicegui (NVE) sends an e-mail to Don Lomoljo inquiring if a meeting could be arranged regarding SB 123 on May 13
- May 13 – Don Lomoljo sends an e-mail to Shawn Elicegui (NVE) declining a meeting because of time constraints, and advises NVE to attend the Commission's May 15 Agenda Meeting to speak in a public meeting about SB 122 (This is the only meeting invitation from NVE that was declined)
- May 15 – PUCN discusses First Reprint Version of SB 123 and Conceptual Amendment provided by NVE on May 9 to Don Lomoljo and Anne-Marie Cuneo (Audio Available on PUCN web-site)
 - NVE declines to attend the Agenda Meeting
 - Commission votes to oppose First Reprint and Conceptual Amendment
- May 16 (5:55 p.m.) – Shawn Elicegui (NVE) e-mails a new amendment of SB 123 to Don Lomoljo
- May 17 - Senate Commerce, Labor and Energy Committee Work Session
 - PUCN invited to the table to answer questions (Anne-Marie Cuneo, Don Lomoljo, and Chairman Alaina Burtenshaw)

PUCN SB 123 Timeline

- Chairman Burtenshaw appears because certain Senators had requested the appearance of a PUCN Commissioner and because the Commission voted to oppose First Reprint and May 9 conceptual amendment of SB 123
- SB 123 amended and do passed

- May 24 – PUCN files written handout detailing primary concerns regarding Second Reprint of SB 123 with the Assembly Labor and Commerce Committee

- May 27 – Assembly Labor and Commerce Committee Meeting
 - PUCN (Anne-Marie Cuneo and Don Lomoljo) testifies in neutral position